This image shows a vertical strip of aged, textured paper. The paper has a mottled, off-white or light gray appearance with visible fibers and some minor discoloration. A prominent, dark, irregular border runs vertically along the right edge, suggesting it might be a binding or a piece of paper from an old book. There are some small, dark spots and a faint, dark mark near the top left corner. The overall texture is rough and aged.

THE MODERN MOTHER
Has found that her little one has improved more by the use of the laxative of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy than by any other, and that is more acceptable to them. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.
The French say "it is the impossible that happens." This has proved to be the case with the Mount Lebanon Shakers. The whole scientific world has been laboring to cure dyspepsia, but every effort seemed to meet with defeat. The suffering from stomach troubles has become almost universal. Multitudes have no desire for food and that which they do eat causes them pain and distress. Sleepless nights are the rule and not the exception. And thousands of sufferers have become discouraged.
The Shakers of Mount Lebanon recently came to the front with their new digestive Cordial, which contains not only a food already digested, but is a digester of food.
It promptly relieves nearly all forms of indigestion. Ask your druggist for one of their bottles.

CATCHER OF CRIMINALS.
Batch of Gossip About Local Matters.
GOVERNOR ELMER BRADLEY has offered the Superintendent of the Hopkinsville asylum to Dr. A. D. James, of Muhlenberg county.
Dr. James was one of the most active workers in the campaign. He served several terms in the House. In case Dr. Hunter is elected to the United States Senate, Dr. James will make the race for Congress in the Third district, and on this account has not yet decided to accept the asylum position. This is a straight tip, according to the Owensboro Messenger.

WILL TAKE A WIFE.
Mr. W. J. Johnson grined broadly this week when he handed a note to County Clerk Prouse. The communication was from the parents of Miss Beula Trotter, authorizing the clerk to issue a marriage license to Mr. Johnson and the young lady, who is under age. Mr. Johnson is a clever young farmer who lives in North Christian.
TOOK A LONG TRIP.
Mr. J. T. Anderson and Miss Lillie Scarborough, both of Logan county, traveled all night in a buggy and reached Springfield, Tenn., Monday morning. They hunted up the county seats and a magistrate and were joined in marriage. They journeyed over forty miles to get married.
RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.
Whereas it has pleased Almighty God in his wise providence to call from the labors of earth our worthy brother P. Terry Shelton, who passed this life at his home Nov. 18th, 1895.
Resolved—That in the death of Bro. Shelton the Masonic Fraternity has lost a zealous and worthy member, the wife and orphan a loving husband and a kind and indulgent father.
Resolved—That Mr. as Masons, have abiding faith that God, with all Masons reverence and obey, but although his loss is deeply felt in the lodge room and the family circle, we can only point those who were united with him in the same great Parent of the universe whose lamp alone dispels the gloom from the dark valley and when it is said of us, "The silver cord has been loosed and the golden band broken," may we then be admitted by the Grand Tyler into that Celestial Lodge above, where the great Architect of the Universe provides.
Resolved—That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the widow of the deceased and that they be spread upon the records of this lodge, and also upon the traveling papers be received to publish them. The brethren are requested to wear the usual badge of mourning thirty days.

FEW FACTS ABOUT FOLKS
"The Things They Say and Do."
INVITATIONS HAVE BEEN received here to the marriage of Miss Beula Trotter to Mr. W. J. Johnson, a popular Trenton couple. The ceremony will take place at the Trenton church on the 12th day of the month. Both have hosts of acquaintances in this city and county.
CHRISTIAN COUNTY'S CONGRESSMAN is right in the push at Washington. When the drawing for seats in the house and senate, and the speaker of the house, Mr. Parrell, was in the chair, Mr. Parrell, leaning on the arm of Governor Lila P. Blackburn, entered the door of the hall, our spokesman met them, and, turning to the speaker and the large and distinguished assembly, formally presented Mr. Parrell, stating his official position, the preserver of the motive that brought him to America and his aim for the relief of Ireland, then afflicted by famine. Our sympathy for him and his country was expressed in earnest and glowing terms.
After speaking five minutes the spokesman, according to instructions, turned him to the speaker's desk, it having been agreed that Mr. Parrell should at once address the assembly; but before he could open his mouth the speaker unexpectedly rushed into the hall, saying: "Ladies and gentlemen, I have the honor to present Mr. Parrell, the gentleman who has just been introduced by our spokesman. He is a very able and accomplished man, and a very successful one in his country. Our sympathy for him and his country was expressed in earnest and glowing terms."

THE HORSE as a Fighter.
Said an ex-cowboy: "I never saw a horse so badly beaten as a horse was so as to amount to anything, but I want to rise right up and testify to the wonderful fighting powers of the horse. He is built for more ways and kinds of fighting than any other product of nature. He can bite, and he can kick, and he can strike with his fore legs. When he is in action, he fights all over. If you want to see him, you should see a horse fight a bunch of horses or a bunch of men. The horse will fight with his head, and his body, and his legs, and his tail. He will fight with his teeth, and his hooves, and his horns. He will fight with his eyes, and his ears, and his nose. He will fight with his skin, and his muscles, and his bones. He will fight with his spirit, and his courage, and his pride. He will fight with his love, and his loyalty, and his devotion. He will fight with his honor, and his integrity, and his honor. He will fight with his life, and his soul, and his spirit. He will fight with his God, and his country, and his people. He will fight with his honor, and his integrity, and his honor. He will fight with his life, and his soul, and his spirit. He will fight with his God, and his country, and his people."
